

Participate
Collaborate
Innovate

ESPP (European Sustainable Phosphorus Platform) is organising a working meeting on policies and tools for the bio-nutrient circular economy, followed by the ESPP General Assembly

→ Brussels, Wednesday 2nd December

Brussels, Science14 Atrium, rue de la Science 14b (metro Arts-Loi or Trône)

9h00 – 12h30

Policies and tools to implement the bio-nutrient circular economy

Panellists (to be confirmed):

Ellen MacArthur Foundation / McKinsey

European Compost Network

European Biogas Association

Stephen Hinton / Swedish Sustainable Economy Foundation

Discussion may include : waste disposal constraints, targets, CAP incentives, natural capital accounting, externalities, dynamic standards, fiscal tax shift ...

Networking lunch

13h30 -16h00

ESPP General Assembly

- regulatory actions underway: fertilisers, EMAS, standards, BAT, REACH ...
- DONUTSS data on nutrients to support stewardship
- budget 2016
- election of ESPP Board (members only may vote)

16h00 Networking drinks

ESPP non-members will be welcome, but places are LIMITED to 60 persons

Please indicate by email if you are interested in attending: info@phosphorusplatform.eu

Participation without prior registration by email is NOT possible.